Dear Students and Parents,

Welcome back to school!

My name is Rafaela Luna and it is my pleasure to introduce myself to you as your Art Teacher. Many of you may recognize me as I was here for the 2nd half of last year as Middle School Art Teacher. I bring to SGS many years of experience as a professional artist as well as an art teacher in the Santo Domingo community.

I possess a BA in Creative Publicity and Business and a Course in Cultural Gestation and Development AEICID from the Organization of Iberia-American States and the Centro Cultural de España. I have also studied Artistic Drawing in the School for the Arts at Altos de Chavón, Plastic Arts Specialization in Painting in the National School of Fine Arts, and Publicity Art at Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo (UASD).

Some related experiences are: in charge of Cultural and Education Department of the Museum of Modern Art, 2004-2007. Painting Professor. Museum of Modern Art. Program Professor for the Free Schools, Secretary of Culture 2007, as many art exhibitions and publications.

Art enriches all of our lives. With respect to our children, it helps them grow with a better sense of themselves by tapping into their creativity.

I am thrilled to be working with your children and facilitating their growth as young artists!

Sincerely,
Rafaela Luna
